

Monday Morning Messenger #7 - September 21, 2009

Up coming events

Monday September 21 will be the OPENING of the ADCA Visual Arts Expo 7.00pm
Address: Colegio Franco Peruano, Av. Morro Solar 550, Monterrico
This expo will last from Sept 21 to Sept 25. All are welcome to attend.

HS Pictures for the Yearbook

On September 25th pictures will be taken in the Roosevelt Room for all the High School students from 9th to 11th grade, starting 8.00am.

Seniors Pictures

On September 28th the official cap & gown picture will be taken in the Roosevelt Room, starting 10.00am.

Boys need to wear a shirt and tie and girls an appropriate blouse and a necklace (optional). Remember that the color of the gown is blue.

Both the HS Symphonic Band and the MS Symphonic Band have qualified to perform at the finals of the 26th Nueva Acropolis Concurso de musica, the most important music festival in Peru. The bands are scheduled for Wednesday, Sept. 23 at the Teatro Peruano Japonés in Jesus Maria. The concert starts at 5 p.m. and the FDR bands will present their music in the second half of the evening. The parents of the band members and the whole community is invited.

The ADCA festival took place last Thursday, Sept. 17 at Colegio Newton. HS Jazz Band and MS symphonic band performed making once again a very strong impression on the audience.

Another great concert will take place on Saturday, Sept. 26 at 6 p.m. at the Universidad Católica. Nine different schools send their representatives to make up a combined concert band and a combined jazz band. About 250 students including 10 from FDR, all performing the same repertoire, will entertain the audience at the PUCP Coliseo Polideportivo. The free passes are available from the HS Music Dept. at jdubiel@amersol.edu.pe.

The National competition for the World Robotics Olympics took place last Friday. FDR had three students in attendance: Juan Fernando C, Ernesto de L, and Juan Diego V.

These students received the second place award among 34 teams from around the country. Congratulations to them and their advisor Ms. Gaby Eyzaguirre.

Interim Reports

Interim reports for high school students will be given to students on 2 October. Please ensure your daughter(s)/son(s) give you the report on that afternoon. Interim Reports are issued at mid-semester. These reports include a grade for each subject and a HAL grade. These two scores indicate student overall progress to date. They are not officially recorded on a transcript and interim scores are not averaged at the end of the first semester.

Parent/Student/Teacher Conferences (3 way) will be held on 12 and 13 October from 1.00pm - 4.00pm by appointment only. A detailed letter about this and the purpose of the interim reports will go out via-e-mail early next week.

September 23 - 24 - Visiting Author Jack Gantos

Author Jack Gantos will be on campus next week Wednesday and Thursday. Gantos will present to all students at FDR and will also conduct a teacher workshop. Gantos is a noted US based author and the events promise to be exciting for the students. The media center has a limited number of his books for sale. Gantos will be signing books in the media center on Wednesday, 12:20-12:40 and Thursday, from 2:20 to 2:40.

Congratulations to our seniors: Kevin A, Thais de A., Juan Francisco E., Ignacio G., Lucas G, Carlos Andrés O, Renán O., Micaela O. de Z., Ivalú V. who were accepted into Peruvian university this week.

To Whom It May Concern:

The senior class would like to apologize for the language and behavior that was used at the end of the ICC competition. Our excitement and competitive spirit does not excuse our behavior and we understand that such language is not acceptable at school, especially when it is directed to other students. We would like to apologize to all who may have been offended.

Sincerely,

Seniors Class of 2010

GREEN TIP OF THIS MONTH: Replace paper napkins with cloth napkins at meals and paper towels with sponges and dish rags
