

Monday Morning Messenger #4 - 31 August 2009

Thank you to all the parents who attended the Back to School Night on Wednesday. The faculty took time and care to prepare an informative evening for you and I hope you learnt about the nature of your daughter(s)/son(s) education in high school.

I apologise for not providing a map. I will remember this for future events.

A big thank you also to the National Honour Society (NHS) students who acted as ushers for the evening.

Homeroom

As a faculty we felt there was a need for a better means of communication and pastoral care of our students in the high school. Last week we sent out an anonymous online survey to the students asking their opinion on this matter – as a result of the surveys we will be implementing a homeroom following the assembly this Tuesday – the details will be sent out to all once confirmed.

Up coming

1. Assembly is this Tuesday at 8am in the Centre Stage. You are welcome to attend.
2. Wednesday 2 September from 1.00-3.00 is the DP CAS Service fair – please feel free to attend.
3. Thursday 3 September at 6.00pm in the Roosevelt there is an informational evening for the parents of grade 11 students who have just embarked upon the diploma programme. Invites have gone out to those parents, but all are welcome to attend.
4. On Thursday at 2.00pm the first high school parent advisory meeting will take place in the Roosevelt room. Parents are welcome to attend.
5. September is here – enjoy your week.
